

For over 100 years, the local paper mill was the primary economic engine of the community. However, the local economy has begun to diversify with the attraction of several High-Tech firms. Over the last decade, the community has lured over $1.0 billion in private investment from major international firms such as Underwriters Laboratories Inc., Sharp Electronics, Linear Technology, and WaferTech.

Underwriters Laboratories Inc.